ON ELLEN'S BOSOM BLUSH'D A ROSE.

T.V. WIESENTHAL.

ANDANTE.

On Ellen's bosom blush'd a rose Fresh bath'd in dew of summer's morn, Its tints might rival

e-ven those Which youthful beauty's cheek adorn; But ah! its fragrance all had flown, And Ellen's lips confess'd the gift, The leaves in si-lence sigh'd alone That not one balmy sweet was left. Woe told his tale, and in her eye shone melting pity's trembling tear, The radiant gem of sym-pa-thy So mild-ly bright so pure-ly clear, It paus'd then softly traced a-way Until it found a-home, a rest; And glit'-ring on the flow'r it lay Whose pil-low was fair El-len's breast.
